

Maple Flooring Manufactures Association, Inducts Hall of Fame Class of 2012

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Rancho Mirage, CA – The MFMA honors those members, past and present, who have made a lasting impact on the maple flooring industry. Inductees into the MFMA Hall of Fame have accomplishments ranging from founding mills to educating architects and specifiers, to developing innovative milling and installation techniques. These outstanding members helped the MFMA become the recognized leader in quality product and technical expertise, and their legacy lives on in the work the association does today.

The 2012 Class to the MFMA Hall of Fame inductees are recognized at the MFMA 2012 Conference during a plaque ceremony and include: John DeClerck, founder and owner of DeClerck Flooring, Inc.; Bruce Stalker, founder and owner of Stalker Flooring Inc.; and Walter Verseman, owner of Missouri Floor Company. Congratulations to each of the inductees of the MFMA Hall of Fame Class of 2012.
